

EMBODYING THE CHARACTER

by using the Alexander Technique
Taught by Jean-Louis Rodrigue & Kristof Konrad

All communication starts with the body. It is the point of origin for the voice, emotional life, and physical activity. It also creates and communicates meaning for the audience- our physical actions and responses are interpreted by the onlooker- and performers need to be in charge of this process.

“With the best of intentions, the job of acting can become a display of accumulated bad habits, trapped instincts and blocked energies. Working with the Alexander Technique to untangle the wires has given me sightings of another way; mind and body, work and life together. Real imaginative freedom.”

- ALAN RICKMAN

"Jean-Louis' teaching is nothing short of life transformational. His class is a must for any serious actor."

- HOWARD FINE

"I really like to look into the physical acting characteristics of my character, because it helps me to transform. The Alexander Technique helps me to burrow into roles like gay cowboys and drug addicts by focusing on my posture, movement, and presence."

- HEATH LEDGER

"The absolute best Alexander classes are given daily by my four-month old son. Kristof and Jean-Louis are a close second. They are not only expert in the theory and application of this incredible technique but pursue their work with a vibrant, contagious love. Their endeavor to help performers choose a new physical life that allows them to be more fully present--in essence, to use themselves differently--is profound, and has implications not only for life on the stage, but for life in general. Kristof and Jean-Louis create a beautiful work environment: safe, rigorous, personal--and sprinkled with a healthy dose of humor. I am so grateful to have had the opportunity to work with them. And they don't spit up nearly as much as my son!"

- PETER HERMANN "War Horse" Broadway, 2011

"The Alexander technique is invaluable to actors of all ages. It helps us find new depth in exploring the physical and emotional life of a character. And it has helped me correct physical issues which affect my daily life. Jean-Louis and Kristof immediately create a level of trust and comfort in teaching this technique which allows all of us in the class to open up to the learning experience. I continue to work privately with them because I believe so strongly in their skill in teaching this technique, and its positive effect on my well-being."

- JOBETH WILLIAMS
