

EMBODYING THE CHARACTER

WORDS, ACTION, PASSION

by using the ANIMAL STUDIES and the Alexander Technique

"I really like to look into the physical acting characteristics of my character, because it helps me to transform. The Alexander Technique helps me to burrow into roles like gay cowboys and drug addicts by focusing on my posture, movement, and presence."

An actor's vision is lived emotionally and physically. That kind of performance requires more than instinct. It needs interpretative intelligence and a mastery of physical, psychological, and emotional craft into performance. Internationally acclaimed teachers Jean-Louis Rodrigue and Kristof Konrad team up to present an intensive workshop to explore the skills and tools that are required for the extraordinary creation of characters and performances.

COURSE CONTENT:

Connecting to the body through awareness with the Alexander Technique (getting out of your head) • Freeing impulse and response patterns by exploring ANIMAL BEHAVIOR • Recognizing the force of habit • Improving breath coordination and vocal quality • Improving our movement by learning to organize body relationships • Understanding Means and Ends • Making clear choices of intention • Infusing direction in our thinking and movement • Applying the Alexander Technique to monologues, sonnets, songs, and scenes • Learning to develop characters physically (if I believe your body, I'll believe your character)

"One of the most important things actors can possess is a relationship to their own body and breath. Jean-Louis works with actors in such a way that they immediately understand from deep within themselves their true impulses. His work is invaluable and I cannot imagine doing a project without him."

LARRY MOSS

"With the best of intentions, the job of acting can become a display of accumulated bad habits, trapped instincts and blocked energies. Working with the Alexander Technique to untangle the wires has given me sightings of another way; mind and body, work and life together. Real imaginative freedom."

ALAN RICKMAN

"Jean-Louis Rodrigue always brings a personal and positive approach to his coaching work. His involvement is timeless and complete. He is generous, genuine, and creative such that even when a character or a story is frightening, it becomes about exploring the work and being of service. Jean-Louis has a clear view of the character the actor is playing and also an awareness of the purpose and structure of the whole movie, which engages the entire actor's intention and responsibility with the project. His work is a useful and exciting way to open my channels for my research as an actress."

JULIETTE BINOCHÉ

"The Alexander technique is invaluable to actors of all ages. It helps us find new depth in exploring the physical and emotional life of a character. And it has helped me correct physical issues which affect my daily life. Jean-Louis and Kristof immediately create a level of trust and comfort in teaching this technique which allows all of us in the class to open up to the learning experience. I continue to work privately with them because I believe so strongly in their skill in teaching this technique, and its positive effect on my well-being."
